

History Camp

History Camp

History Camp is the unconference dedicated to all things history.

This year's sessions include: "Roman Legionary" • "The History of the Postage Stamp and the US Postal System" • "In Defense of Material Culture" • "Were the Early Suffragists Racist? A Look Into the Early Movement Prior to The Emancipation Proclamation" • "This Side of Paradise: The Tragedy and Triumph of a small town in MetroWest" • "Don't Let History Get STEAMrolled: Practical Approaches to Getting Kids Engaged with History" • "Sharing Your Passion for History: Blogs, Podcasts, Books, and More" • "Soldiers in Our Homes: The French and Indian War & Quartering in Albany, New York, 1756-1763" • "The Salem Witch Trials: The Accused, Their Accusers, and the American Experience" • "The History of The Boston Post Road: America's First Information Highway" • "Researching the Old Homesteads of Marlborough" • "Our Forebears & Massachusetts in the Civil War" • "Ideas for Programming, Outreach, and Operations of Smaller History Organizations: What Worked What Didn't, and What We Learned from It"

- "Living History: Historic House Museums and the Classroom Teacher: The Age of Medicine and Midwifery" • "Risky Business: Living History Events in Traditional Museums" • "Making History Comics" • "Prince Demah, Portrait Painter" • "How Would-Be Assassin Samuel Dyer Nearly Triggered the Revolutionary War" • "Tools for History Teachers: Using Primary Sources Through the Library of Congress Website"

Interested in presenting? Want a table where you can sell and sign your books?
www.HistoryCamp.org

Saturday, March 28, 2015

In Boston at the Harriet Tubman House (United South End Settlements)
Near the Mass Ave T stop and covered parking

Registration required: historycamp2015.eventbrite.com

Tip: History Camp 2014 in Cambridge filled up days in advance, so register now.

#HistoryCamp

HISTORY CAMP
HISTORY CAMP
History Camp
History Camp